

The Daily Courant.

Thursday, May 16. 1706.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated May 20.

Marfeilles, May 7.

TO Day arriv'd a Bark that left Barcelona the 5th Instant. The Master reports, that the Besieged made a Salley the 3d with 1000 Men; but were repuls'd, and that some of them were taken Prisoners, among them a Monk and a Captain of the Miquelets, who were both hang'd.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated May 21.

Venice, May 7. They write from Salo, that Count Albergotti having pass'd the Mincio the 30th of last Month with 30 Battalions and 2000 Dragoons of the Duke of Vendome's Army, had endeavour'd to dislodge the Imperialists from la Ferrara and other neighbouring Posts that they have on the Adige; that he caus'd the Post of la Ferrara to be attack'd with great Vigour by a strong Detachment of Grenadiers and Fusileers supported by the rest of his Troops, but that they were repuls'd with considerable Loss; that at the same time some Troops of the Imperialists that were lower on the Adige, pass'd that River at Pontone; that the French having Notice of it, drew that Way to drive them back agen, but Prince Eugene caus'd them to be charg'd so opportunely, that they were forc'd to retire in Disorder and with very great Loss. Prince Hercolani the Emperor's Ambassador here, has receiv'd an Account of these 2 Actions by an Exprese, with these Particulars, viz. That the French had 1500 Men kill'd in them, 2 Battalions made Prisoners, 700 Men wounded which they sent to Lazize, and 6 Pieces of Cannon taken: And that 500 of the Imperialists were kill'd or wounded. Count Albergotti posted himself afterwards at Rivoli, where the Duke of Vendome arriv'd the 4th Instant with the greatest Part of his Army. He has left 9 Battalions at Salo, and 12 others in the neighbouring Defiles at the Foot of the Mountains of the Tirolese. The Duke of Vendome has posted the Right of his Army on the side of the Adige over against Pontone, the Left at Gavarde, and the Centre at Cavallone. They write from Verona, that the Germans have possess'd themselves of the Posts of St. Michael and St. Martin, with 5000 Foot and 2000 Horse commanded by General Visconti.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated May 21.

Milan, May 8. We have Advice, that the French having attack'd the Imperialists at Montebaldo, were repuls'd with Loss, and that they have sent several Waggons with their wounded to Dezenzano, among them 2 Officers of Note. General Albergotti's Adjutant, was kill'd in that Action with a Bayonet; M. Bellegarde Major General was also slain in it. There are frequent Skirmishes between the Parties of the 2 Armies. Prince Eugene of Savoy, has view'd the Ground about the Adige, and has receiv'd Reinforcements of Troops and considerable Remittances of Money. 'Tis rumour'd he will make an Attempt to send a considerable Body of Men to Piemont. The Chevalier del Aubespain could fish up but 2 of the 3 heavy Cannon the Imperialists threw into the Lake of Garda.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated May 20.

Paris, May 14. We have Advice from our Army in Italy, that Prince Eugene had attempted to lay a Bridge over the Adige not far from la Ferrara, but was hindred; that thereupon he order'd a Bridge to be laid somewhat lower, but our Troops drawing that Way, they fell to cannonading each other cross the River. The Duke of Vendome had detach'd the 2 Regiments of Horse of Renepont and Bertailac for Piemont, and they were to be follow'd by a Detachment of Foot.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated May 21.

Milan, May 6. Several Gentlemen are gone from hence for Piemont, with the Leave of the Prince of Vaudemont our Governour, to assist in the Siege of Turin. The Duke of Vendome is encamp'd at Rivoli on the Adige, and will pass that River as soon as the Intrenchments and Redoubts which he has set 8000 Peasants at work to make between that Place and Garda, are finish'd.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated May 21.

Pignerol, May 18. Yesterday all our Gunners, Miners, and Fireworkers, with 38 Pieces of heavy Cannon, 11 Mortars, and a great Quantity of Ammunition, set forward from hence for Avigliano; where some Fireworkers, and others belonging to the Artillery, are expected from Susa, as are also 2 or 3000 Mules from Dauphine. To Day our whole Garrison, 200 Men excepted, took the same Route. The Duke de la Feuillade was Yesterday with most of his Army at Volpiano on this Side of Chivas.

Switzerland, May 10. 'Tis advis'd from Piemont, that the French Army commanded by the Duke de la Feuillade advanc'd the 8th Instant to San Maurizio between Chivas and Turin, and would halt there 2 or 3 Days for their heavy Artillery. The Duke of Savoy has drawn almost all his Troops into the Town and Citadel, which he has provided with Stores of all things necessary for their Defence; so that that Siege is like to cost a great deal of Blood.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated May 21.

Casal, May 8. Our Preparations for the Siege of Turin are compleatly ready, and 'tis still said it will be begun the 15th of this Month; but some are of Opinion this Siege depends upon the Success of that of Barcelona. His Royal Highness of Savoy has sent the Dutcheffes out of Turin, and with them whatever Effects he deem'd most valuable: He has fortified the Place with all imaginable Precautions, and has a very strong Garrison in it, with which he is determin'd to hold out to the last Extremity, to give Time for Succours to come to his Relief. The Citizens

Citizens of Turin have sent away their best Effects to other Places.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated May 21.

Friburg, May 10. Two Regiments sent by the Prince of Baden, are happily arriv'd here, but 30 or 40 Waggon's loaded with Stores of War are fallen into the Enemy's Hands. Several Companies that were to have march'd from hence to take possession of several Posts in the Black Forrest, are countermanded, and order'd to continue here. Some French Troops that are come on this side of the Rhine, and have posted themselves at Veltkirchen and Mar-dingh, are reinforc'd daily, and have some Cannon. They seem to design to streighten our Garrison, and hinder our being supplied with Provisions.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated May 21.

From the Danube, May 14. The Ban against the Electors of Bavaria and Cologne, has been publish'd at Raisbon, Munich, and other Places, with the usual Formalities. The late Elector of Bavaria's Children, are carried to Clagenfurt in Carinthia, under a Guard of 300 Horse. General Guido Staremburg, is gone back to Hungary from Vienna, after having given the Emperor an Account of the Condition of his Forces and the State of Affairs in that Country.

Cologne, May 18. Yesterday a Herald at Arms arriv'd here from Vienna, with a Letter from his Imperial Majesty, to notify the Publication of the Ban of the Empire against the 2 Electors of Cologne and Bavaria; and to-morrow the same will be publish'd here in the usual Places. The Troops of Hanover march by 2 Routes to the Upper Rhine; most of the Horse go by Mentz, and the Foot up the Side of the Rhine. The Hessian Troops take their way by Creutznach.

Hague, May 21. They write from Liege the 17th Instant, that the Marshal de Marfin was with his Detachment between Metz and Luxemburg; whether he continued his march from thence down to the Netherlands we are yet to learn, but 'tis believ'd at least he cannot joyn the Marshal de Villeroy before the Duke of Marlborough offers him Battle; on the other Hand the Prussian Troops that are to serve under the Duke of Marlborough, do not march with Expedition enough to joyn his Grace before the beginning of June. The King of France, by an Arret of Council dated the 11th of this Month, has suppress'd all Lotteries, except those establish'd for his own Profit by his Edict of December last. My Lord Halifax is gone from hence to Amsterdam, thence to go to Utrecht, and so to Voorst the Earl of Albemarle's Seat; where he will stay till the Arrival of Mr. Van-brug, King of Arms, who brings with him the Ensigns of the Order of the Garter for the Electoral Prince of Hanover: and then his Lordship will proceed with him to the Court of Hanover.

Plymouth, May 10. On the 8th sail'd Her Majesty's Ships the Bredah, Sunderland, Jerzey, Windsor, Crown, Assurance, Sheerness Gally, Swan, Dunkirk's Prize, and Hawk Fireship, for the West-Indies. Also Her Majesty's Ship the Warwick for Newfoundland and the Hazardeux for Virginia, with about 110 Sail of Merchant Ships for Virginia, West-Indies, Newfoundland, New-England, &c. and 2 Merchant Ships for the East-Indies under their Convoy. Her Majesty's Ship the Greenwich bound to Virginia having receiv'd some Damage is left here to refit.
